1. Giancarlo Pajetta, member of the Italian Communist Party Directorate, has reportedly assigned to the Unione Donne Italiane (UDI; Union of Italian Women) the task of planning a campaign, to be implemented immediately, for dispatch of "spontaneous" letters, appeals and motions by Italian women and girls to Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce, asking her to be a spokesman for Italian women's desire for peace.
2. There is no confirmation in Rome that the campaign is being executed.
3. Wherever possible, the campaign, if conducted, will not reveal its Communist origin.
